

CONTENTS

African horse sickness	pag.	8
African swine fever	»	10
Anaplasmosis or Gallsickness	»	12
Anthrax	»	14
Babesiasis or Piroplasmosis	»	16
Blackleg	»	18
Bluetongue	»	20
Botulism	»	22
Bovine malignant catarrh	»	24
Brucellosis	»	26
Contagious bovine pleuropneumonia	»	28
Cysticercosis	»	30
Dermatophilosis	»	32
Dourine	»	34
Echinococcosis-Hydatidosis	»	36
Fascioliasis or Liver fluke disease	»	38
Foot-and-mouth-disease	»	40
Fowl coccidiosis	»	42
Fowl pox	»	44
Gastrointestinal parasitism by nematodes	»	46
Glanders	»	48
Heartwater	»	50
Hog cholera or classical swine fever	»	52
Lumpy skin disease	»	54
Lungworm infection	»	56

Mange	»	58
Nagana or Bovine Trypanosomiasis	»	60
Newcastle disease	»	62
Rabies	»	64
Rift Valley fever	»	66
Rinderpest	»	68
Salmonellosis	»	70
Schistosomiasis	»	72
Sheep pox	»	74
Shipping fever	»	76
Strike and screw-worm myiasis	»	78
Surra or Dbab	»	80
Sweating sickness	»	82
Tetanus	»	84
Theileriasis, bovine	»	86
Trichinellosis or Trichinosis*	»	90
Trichomoniasis of cattle*	»	88
Tuberculosis	»	92

Diseases marked with 2 asterisks belong to Group A of the Classification proposed by the «Office International des Epizooties». Being of special importance in Public health, they are subject to international compulsory notification by telegramme (except for brucellosis and tuberculosis),
Diseases with one asterisc belong to Group B, and are subject to compulsory notification by annual report only.